EASTERN WORLD

INDEX TO VOL. III (1949)

This index is restricted to articles and editorials only, and does not include items mentioned in the various features like "Books on the Far East," "London Notebook," "From All Quarters" and "Economic Notes."

AFGHANISTAN

Editorial (June, p.3).

Kabul versus Karachi, by M. Kerslake (August, p.9).

BURMA

The Karen Question, by L. Bodard (January-February, p.4).

The Peoples of Burma, by Lt.-Col. D. MacD. Fife (March, p.4).

Editorial (April, p.4).

The Burma-Yunnan Boundary Commission, by W. Stark Toller (May, p.4; June, p.4).

Editorial (May, p.3).

What is Happening in Burma? by Neil Stewart (July, p.4).

Burma and the Karen Problem, by C. Schilsky (August, p.7).

Burmese Films, by On Pe (November, p.6).

A Shan Marriage and Divorce, by Lt.-Col. D. MacD. Fife (November, p.28).

The Burmese Theatre, by David Parry (December, p.29).

CEYLON

Ceylon and the U.S.S.R., by V. Wolpert (March, p.25).

Ceylon's Rubber in Peril, by Austin de Silva (April, p.26).

Reflections on a Recent Tour, by Gen. Albert Orsborn (July, p.8).

Trade Possibilities in Ceylon, by Austin de Silva (July, p.28).

Interview with Ceylon's Finance Minister (August, p.38).

"Land of Delights," by Winifred Holmes (September, p.26).

Ceylon's Foreign Trade, by C. E. P. Jayasuriya (October, p.35).

Anti-Corruption Drive in Ceylon, by Austin de Silva (December, p.11).

CHINA (including HONG KONG)

Notes from Shanghai, by J. R. Kaim (January-February, p.18)

Portrait of Chiang Kai-shek, by Robert P. Martin (January-February, p.19).

Formosa, by Amos Landman (January-February, p.21).

Communist Leaders of China, by John Ridley (March, p.9).

British-Chinese Cultural Relations, by A. G. Morkill (March, p.10).

A Note on Laotse, by Dr. Lin Yutang (March, p.18).

China or Communism? by O. M. Green (April, p.7).

Hong Kong, by Paul S. Townsend (April, p.9).

The "Young Marshal" on Formosa, by Robert P. Martin (April, p.9).

China's Peace Seeker, by Robert P. Martin (May, p.8).

The Gentlemen of Macao, by Paul S. Townsend (May, p.19).

More China Riddles, by J. R. Kaim (May, p.26).

Unchanging China, by Sir John Pratt (June, p.11).

Yangtze: Great River of China, by D. England (June, p.13).

Chinese Banks and Bankers, by J. R. Kaim (June, p.26).

Hong Kong and the East River Company, by H. C. K. Woddis (August, p.10).

Confucius Today, by Neville Whymant (August, p.12).

The Future of Shanghai, by Marc T. Greene (September, p.9).

Chiang's Last Bastion, by E. R. Yarham (September, p.11).

Russia and the Chinese Communists, by O. M. Green (October, p.5).

Will the Communists Attack Hong Kong? by Lewis Gen (October, p.7).

How Fare the Arts in China? by Neville Whymant (October, p.25).

Lest We Forget How it Happened in China, by J. R. Kaim (November, p.9).

The Conservative Revolution in China, by Tony Gibson (November, p.12).

The Teachings of Mencius, by Lewis Gen (November, p.14).

Life in the Communist Hinterland, by Tony Gibson (December, p.4).

Past Trends in British Policy Towards China, by H. C. K. Woddis (December, p.6).

The Philosophy of Opportunism, by Neville Whymant (December, p.26).

Editorials (June, July, August, September, October, November, December, pp.3).

INDO-CHINA

French Policy in Indo-China, by L. Bodard (January-February, p.5).

"The Flutter of Birds," by Winifred Holmes (November, p.25).

Editorials (January-February, July, November, pp.3).

INDONESIA

The Delhi Conference on Indonesia (January-February, p.10).

East Indonesia, by J. W. Levij (March, p.5).

Indonesia Dances, by Winifred Holmes (March, p.19).

Dutch Blind Alley in Indonesia, by Harold R. Isaacs (April, p.11).

In the Reconquered Land of the Indonesian Republic, by Harold R. Isaacs (May, p.6).

Editorials (January-February, March, May, August, October, December, pp.3).

INDIA

Decay and Disappearance in India, by Francis Story (January-February, p.11).

Anthropological Research in India, by F. L. Gupta (January-February, p.13).

India's First Polio Centre, by Lucy Griscon Morgan (January-February, p.26).

A Brahmin Dinner, by Douglas Trim (January-February, p.34).

Old Indian Weapons, by Roland Blackburn (January-February, p.35).

Shivarathri in South India, by N. V. Eswar (January-February, p.37).

Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, by L. N. Gubil (April, p.15).

Mahatma Gandhi, by B. S. Sawhny (April, p.21).

Indian Appeals to the Privy Council, by U. V. Seetaramaiya (June, p.7).

Economic Relations between Britain and India, by J. D. Krivine (June, p.24).

Integration in India, by Oscar Spate (July, p.6).

Reflections on a Recent Tour, by Gen. Albert Orsborn (July, p.8).

The Brahman in Proverbs, by Lt.-Col. D. MacD. Fife (July, p.14).

Renascent Hinduism, by Swami Avyaktananda (July, p.23).

Witchcraft in India and Pakistan, by Roland Blackburn (July, p.25).

Chandernagore, by E. R. Yarham (August, p.6).

"Nightingale of the East," by Alfred J. Edwin (August, p.25).

An Indian Ocean Pact, by P. R. Ramchandra Rao (September, p.6).

The Travancore-Cochin Merger, by Alfred J. Edwin (September, p.8).

On Indian Philosophy, by S. Bhattacharya (September, p.25).

The New Constitution in India, by O. P. Bhatnagar (October, p.10).

Civil Liberty in India, by An Indian Lawyer (October, p.12).

Education in Free India, by P. R. Ramchandra Rao (October, p.13).

The Last Viceroy, by Edwin Haward (October, p.23).

The Broken Men, by Mervyn Jones (October, p.24).

The Tamils and their Country, by D. A. Thrower (November, p.8).

Mulk Raj Anand, by Alfred J. Edwin (November, p.27).

A Fourth Style in Indian Painting, by Winifred Holmes (December, p.27).

Waste Lands into Farms, by Alfred J. Edwin (December, p.33).

JAPAN

Art for the Man in the Street, by Winifred Holmes (January-February, p.30).

Some Shrines of Japan, by Edwin G. Voller (January February, p.38).

Christianity in Japan, by the Rt. Rev. John C. Mann (March, p.11).

An Analysis of the Japanese Elections, by Owen Lattimore (March, p.12).

Will Japan Menace the British Pottery Industry? by Richard Hooker (April, p.24).

Tokyo Chit Chat, by Howard Young (May, p.10).

U.S. Policy in Japan, by John Ridley (May, p.18).

Japan and Her Maritime Expansion, by Charles A. Rigby (October, p.9).

The Theatre in Japan, by David Parry (August, p.26).

Labour Crisis in Japan, by John Kennedy (September, p.4).

Japan's Foreign Trade, by V. Wolpert (September, p.30).

Japan's Socialists Fight for Democracy, by John Kennedy (Otcober, p.9).

Land Reform in Japan, by V. Wolpert (December, p.36).

Editorial (January-February, p.3).

KOREA

Economic Developments in Korea, by Robert T. Oliver (April, p.28).

Letter From Korea, by Robert T. Oliver (May, p.11).

Public Health in Korea, by Robert T. Oliver (June, p.12).

The Economy of Korea, by Yong Wan Kim (August, p.30).

Rice and Grain Production in Korea, by David Ahn (December, p.26).

Hong Kong's Trade with North Korea (December, p.33).

Editorial (September, p.3).

MALAYA

Notes on the Rubber Industry (January-February, p.43).

Prospect for Tin, by Neil Stewart (August, p.29).

Economic Problems of Malaya, by Howard Fox (September, p.32).

Editorials (April, June, pp.3).

PACIFIC

The Australian Trusteeship in New Guinea, by K. D. Gott (January-February, p.22).

Melanesian Magic Art, by Winifred Holmes (April, p.22).

Pacific Fisheries, by Eric Hardy (August, p.32).

Hawaii Today, by James H. Shoemaker (December, p.7).

PAKISTAN

Pakistan's Hydro-Electric Schemes, by H. A. Sims (January-February, p.45).

Tribes of the Tirah, by G. FitzGerald-Lee (March, p.7).

Industry in Pakistan, by J. A. Wolfe (March, p.27).

Changing Epoch in the N.W. Frontier Province, by J. A. Wolfe (April, p.25).

The Port of Chittagong (May, p.28).

Reflections on a Recent Tour, by Gen. Albert Orsborn (July, p.8).

The Cultural Heritage of Pakistan, by Winifred Holmes (July, p.24).

Witchcraft in India and Pakistan, by Roland Blackburn (July, p.25).

Raw Jute Prospects, by J. D. Baxter (July, p.29).

Kabul versus Karachi, by M. Kerslake (August, p.9).

An Indian Ocean Pact, by P. R. Ramchandra Rao (September, p.6).

Pakistan's Growing Stature, by Qutubuddin Aziz (September, p.15).

Pakistan's California, by H. A. Sims (December, p.35).

Editorial (December, p.3).

SOVIET ASIA

The Soviet Impact on the East, by J. Winter (October, p.4).

Russia and the Chinese Communists, by O. M. Green (October, p.5).

THAILAND

Cockpit of Anglo-American Interests, by H. C. K. Woddis (January-February, p.7).

Siam's Concern for her Islamic Population (April, p.15).

Univ of M Bindery

1473572

TIBET

Indo-Tibetan Trade and Routes, by Lt.-Col. D. MacD. Fife (January-February, p.14).

The Spirit of Tibetan Culture, by Li An-che (April, p.5).

The Theatre in Tibet, by David Parry (June, p.21).

The Role of Tibet in Asian Affairs, by R. Rees Rawson (December, p.13).

BORNEO

The Pagan Peoples of Borneo, by Tom Harrisson (August, p.4).

Progress in Brunei, by R. M. McKinnon (December, p.9).

NEPAL

Nepal and her Art, by Winifred Holmes (June, p.22).

Will Everest be Conquered? by J. L. Forster (August, p.26).

MISCELLANEOUS

The Struggle Against Imperialism, by Mary Klopper (January-February, p.9).

A Hundred Years Ago, by Geo. J. S. King (January-February, p.16).

Romance of Old World Trading Routes, by E. R. Yarham (January-February, p.17).

A Brahmin Dinner, by Douglas Trim (January-February, p.34).

Marjus Singh's Secret, by R H. Ferry (January-February, p.36).

The Peak, by Paul S. Townsend (January-February, p.39).

The Giant Panda, by Eric Hardy (January-February, p.40).

Canada's Trade with the Far East, by V. Wolpert (January-February, p.41).

The Day was Propitious, by Koa-An (March, p.21).

Jews in the East, by H. G. Reissner (April, p.4).

A Scholarly Enterprise, by Sir John Pratt (April, p.20).

The Migrations of Some Oriental Patterns, by Winifred Holmes (May, p.20).

"Manny," by Herbert Chambers (May, p.22).

The Holy Man, by R. H. Ferry (May, p.23).

Next Steps Out East, by Maj.-Gen. J. R. Hartwell (June, p.9).

Air Survey Helps Asian Development, by J. A. Wolfe (June, p.14).

The World Market for Tea, by W. A. Jackson (June, p.27).

U.S. Trade with the Far East (June, p.29).

The B.I.F. and the Far East, by V. Wolpert (June, p.30).

Australia's White Curtain, by K. D. Gott (July, p.10).

Radio Voices of the East, by Charles A. Rigby (July, pp.12; August, 16; September, 34; October, 16; December, 16).

Presenting the East to the West, by G. FitzGerald-Lee (July, p.13).

Raw Jute Prospects, by J. D. Baxter (July, p.29).

Will Everest be Conquered? by J. L. Forster (July, p.28).

Prospect for Tin, by Neil Stewart (July, p.29).

Pacific Fisheries, by Eric Hardy (July, p.32).

U.N. Economic Survey (July, p.34).

An Indian Ocean Pact, by P. R. Ramchandra Rao (September, p.6).

Buddhism and the Spirit World, by The Anagarika Priyadarsi Sugatananda (September, p.13).

The Study of Islam, by Imam M. A. Bajwa (September, p.24).

The Champions of Chi, by Kuo Mo-jo (September, p.28).

The Temple, by Herbert Chambers (September, p.29).

Radiolympia, 1949, by Peter D. Bishop (September, p.35).

The Magic Trinket, by R. H. Ferry (October, p.27).

The Men from Tibet, by Norman Colgan (October, p.29).

Oil Resources in the Far East, by Howard Fox (October, pp.32; November, 34; December, 40).

British Motorcar Industry and the Far East (October, p.34).

Canada's Motorcar Exports to the East (October, p.34).

Tropical Medicine, by Major W. P. Evans (November, p.4).

The Junk, by Herbert Chambers (November, p.29).

Buddhist Cremation, by R. D. Barrett-Lennard (November, p.30).

Is the East Over-populated? by L. Delgado (December, p.14).

I Saw the Indian Rope Trick, by John Carlsson (December, p.31).